Creative Director

At Dingolay Design & Marketing my personal goal is to bring brands to life, creating a choreography of planning and design to tap into the rhythm of a brand's authentic message.

I strive to produce not just a message, but a melody of cohesive marketing services to create your unique brand beat.

Orchestrating an approach that is defined by creativity, flexibility, attention to detail and a dynamic use of technology.

Client LOVE NOTES

Working with Dingolay Design & Marketing (DDM) was an easy and smooth process from the initial consultation through to the finished product. From my very first meeting to the point where my website was up and running - and beyond, Dingolay Design Group helped me with every aspect of designing and setting up my website. Chantelle quickly understood what I needed and was able to take my needs and translate them into a creative and effective mechanism for sharing. I have no hesitation recommending DDM.

I started using Dingolay Design for designing all my marketing and promotional material in 2021 and I am extremely satisfied with the quality of work produced by Chantelle and her team. I like the fact that Dingolay can essentially handle any task I give them, whether it's logos, calendars, websites, tenders, certificates, company profiles, advertisements, newsletters etc.

The design fees are very attractive and reasonable and the team has tremendous vision and range. They are very accommodating to clients like myself who do not know what they want until they see it and the number of iterations required before a winning design is selected are kept to a minimum. I fully endorse and recommend Chantelle Wilson and her dynamic team at Dingolay Design as your information architect of choice.

DDM is an amazing fit for OMG. We ordered a Social Media Facelift, which gave us a more modern and professional look. Our side order of the full service print package for our to-go menus conceptualised, designed and fully sheparded by the DDM Team is also taking our customer engagement to the next level. From our initial consult, to the finished product, DDM has been thorough, friendly, creative and extremely professional.

Adding that extra topping of Social Media Management lets Chantelle and the team create, curate and respond to all things socials related in a timely and efficient manner that fits our company voice giving us more time to focus on our mission to keep our customers saying OMG!
